Baseball Factory's Spring Break Camp details:

- Designed for youth players aged 9-14
- Players are grouped according to age and ability
- Players will learn the fundamentals of baseball through individual, group, and team instruction
- The camp will focus on all aspects of the game including hitting, fielding, pitching and base running
- The camp staff will incorporate development of sportsmanship, leadership, and good study habits at school
- Our goal is to teach the game of baseball and for players to meet new friends and have fun as they become a better player

A fun camp that will challenge each player to become a better player and a better teammate!

All proceeds to benefit the

What is the B.A.S.E. – H.I.T. Foundation?

Founded in 1994, the B.A.S.E. – H.I.T. Foundation was created to give middle school student-athletes hope, guidance and the opportunity to advance their education and their sports careers. It is the mission of the B.A.S.E. – H.I.T. Foundation to promote baseball, education and the quality of life for youth and amateur baseball players in Baltimore City.

PRESENTS THE

SPRING BREAK CAMP

Camp Staff

MATT SCHILLING

Senior Director of On-Field Instruction

Matt graduated from Coastal Carolina University, where he was an All-Conference and All-State player while being voted the fourth best second baseman in the country.

After his playing days, Matt coached at Coastal for five years, helping them reach the top 25. He is also a former Associate Scout with the Atlanta Braves.

JOE LAKE

Lessons Coordinator

Joe's first experience with Baseball Factory was in 1995 at age nine when he attended a youth camp. Joe had an outstanding high school career at Long Reach HS where he twice received the team MVP award. Joe received a scholarship to play his college baseball at James Madison University, where he became a two-time team captain. In addition he was named an All-Conference and All-State (VA) player after his senior season.

Additional camp staff will include other former pro and college players.
