

SPRING TRAINING CAMP

February 20 - 22, 2009 Buck Hardee Field, home of the Wilmington Sharks Wilmington, North Carolina

Learn what it takes to edge out the competition by training with Baseball Factory's staff of professional scouts, former professional players and former college coaches

Refine your techniques just in time for high school tryouts

Take advantage of this opportunity to spend time on the field before the 2009 season

Baseball Factory's Spring Training Camp offers high school players:

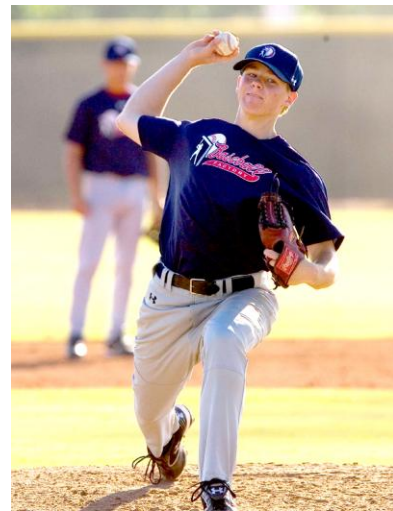

Professional Instruction: Top-notch coaches include professional scouts, former professional players and former college coaches. Together they will lead players through instructional drills and game simulations in order to hone specific skills in time for the 2009 season.

Position Specific Training: Propel yourself to the next level by learning hitting, pitching and fielding techniques from professionals who have experienced competition at the highest level.

Repetition in Game Situations: Gain an advantage over the competition by getting some last minute training before tryouts begin for your high school team. Start your season early and avoid slumping. The more reps you have the better prepared you will be once games begin.

Confidence for the 2009 Season: Make adjustments to your game in a pressure free environment with coaches who know how to prepare you for the upcoming season. Our coaches will help you to improve your mechanics, giving you the confidence necessary to succeed.

Top Facility: Train where some of the top collegiate players compete. The Coastal Plains League is quickly becoming one of the top collegiate summer leagues in the country.
