

Congratulations on being selected for the Baseball Factory Spring Training in Arizona! Important Travel Information

Players who are traveling alone must arrive/depart from the Sky Harbor International Airport. Please note that we will only provide ground transportation to/from the airport to players traveling alone and who arrive and depart on the travel days, travel times, and at the airport listed below. If you cannot find a flight that arrives/departs within the recommended times below, please contact Alexandra McMackin (amcmackin@factoryathletics.com or 667-401-1241). We will do our best to accommodate you based on flights.

Airport: Sky Harbor International Airport (PHX)

Arrival Time: Please book flights to land between 5pm-8pm on Friday, January 15th

Players traveling alone will be met by a Baseball Factory representative at their flight's baggage claim. For players traveling with a parent, it is usually faster for players to travel to/from the airport with their parents rather than waiting for the Baseball Factory airport shuttle. Players who are traveling with their parents should meet at the Phoenix Marriott Mesa.

Departure Time: Please book flights to take off after 4pm on Monday, January 18th

DO NOT book any flight (non-stop or connecting) that is the last flight of the day. This is to prevent the need for an overnight stay in a hotel in the event of a cancelled flight.

BAGGAGE AND OTHER FEES

Baseball Factory is not responsible for additional fees required for air travel such as baggage fees. Parents should inquire with the airline to pre-pay for all unaccompanied minor and/or baggage fees. With the mounting fees and amount of players traveling alone, our staff will be unable to cover these costs for players at the airport. Please be sure your son has enough cash with him to cover these expenses or contact your airline to pre-pay if possible.

PLAYERS TRAVELING AND FLYING ALONE

Parents are responsible for making appropriate travel arrangements. When players will be flying alone, it is the parents' responsibility to consult the appropriate airline's policy regarding unaccompanied minors prior to booking air travel.

Each airline has its own policies and age limits regarding children flying alone. Due to staffing limitations, Baseball Factory cannot accompany or otherwise assist with individual travel arrangements. Some information is provided below with respect to the generally offered options for unaccompanied minors. However, please note that the information provided below does NOT supersede and is not a substitute for information received directly from the airline.

Guidelines/procedures for unaccompanied minors vary by airline. Please be sure you are familiar with your airline's policies and make sure to relay any pertinent information to Baseball Factory on the Player Travel Information Form. There are generally two options for unaccompanied minors. If your son is of the requisite age pursuant to airline policy, your son may fly without a parent and without an assigned airline attendant. If your son is not of the requisite age or your family decides that it is best that your son be accompanied, some airlines offer an unaccompanied minor service. Your family should decide what option is best for your son. Each airline service is different so be sure that you fully understand if the airline offers the service and what the service entails and requires BEFORE booking the flight or the service.

Option 1: Traveling WITHOUT the Unaccompanied Minor Service

Players of the appropriate age can fly on the following airlines. Following is Baseball Factory's understanding of the age at which a child may travel alone without an unaccompanied minor service on each of the listed airlines, but there may be airlines that offer the service in addition to those listed:

- | | |
|--|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> United (must be age 12 and over) | <input type="checkbox"/> Alaska (must be age 13 and over) |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Southwest (must be age 12 and over) | <input type="checkbox"/> Delta (must be age 15 and over) |
| <input type="checkbox"/> American (must be age 12 and over) | <input type="checkbox"/> JetBlue (must be age 14 and over) |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Air Tran (must be age 12 and over) | <input type="checkbox"/> US Airways (must be age 15 and over) |

Option 2: Traveling WITH the Unaccompanied Minor Service

If the airline requires your son to travel accompanied or you opt-into paying the extra fee for an unaccompanied minor service (usually $100 each way), a chaperone must obtain a security pass from the airline and sit with your son at the gate until the flight takes off. A chaperone must obtain a security pass from the airline and meet your son at the arrival gate upon arrival. Baseball Factory will provide a chaperone to meet the unaccompanied minor at the arrival gate ONLY if the player flies UNITED AIRLINES (for players ages 11 and under) or US AIRWAYS (for players ages 14 years and under). If the player is traveling on a different airline or does not meet the age specifications, it is your responsibility to coordinate a chaperone at arrival and transfer to baggage claim.

My son is traveling alone. How will he know whom to meet at the airport?

A Baseball Factory staff member will meet players at their baggage claim area. You will be emailed the name and cell phone number of the Baseball Factory's main point of contact in the days prior to the event. Please make sure players have this number in case they run into any problems such as flight delays or if they get lost. If possible, parents should provide us with a cell phone number for players traveling alone. Preparing for your Player Development Event

We are excited to have you involved in our Player Development program. We look forward to working with you to help you improve. However, it will take work on your part as well. You need to be thinking about getting yourself in baseball shape before the event in order to get the most out of your experience. Please make sure you are preparing weeks before the start of this event, not days before.

Preparing yourself does not mean only going to the gym and lifting weights, it involves your effort to get your baseball specific skills as sharp and as close to game speed as you can get them. Below is a suggested workout to follow:

- Throwing - All players need to throw AT LEAST every other day. You should throw for 15-20 minutes each workout, and long toss twice a week if possible. If you have no partner to throw with, then throw into a net or a fence.
- Running – All players need to run sprints 3 TIMES PER WEEK (every other day). Run 4 60-yard sprints, 4 40-yard sprints, and finish with at least a 15 minute jog each workout (the best way to better your 60-yard dash time is to run 60-yard dashes).
- Fielding – Position players should have their legs ready to go through full days of drills, repetitions, conditioning and games. You will be on your feet a lot during the week, and will need to have enough strength and flexibility to maintain your energy level. In addition to fungos or live work with a ball (if possible), make sure to incorporate other work such as: jump rope, agility ladder drills, and dry footwork for your position (all can be done indoors if needed).
- Hitting – All players need to AT LEAST swing a bat every day. Work on game speed dry swings, and as much as possible you need to: see thrown pitches, hit off a tee, and take soft toss.
- Pitching – All pitchers need to throw AT LEAST 3 or 4 times per week, with 2 of those times per week being 30-40 pitch bullpens to a Catcher. If you have no catcher to throw to, then throw into a net or fence. Make sure to work on off-speed pitches also.
- Lifting – If you ARE currently on a lifting/conditioning program, maintain it while you ADD the above baseball specific training. If you ARE NOT currently on a lifting/conditioning program, DO NOT start a new one right before your event. If you do, you will be sore and tight and unable to prepare your baseball specific skills as necessary.

Keep in mind; this is only a suggested minimum amount of work to do (this is your opportunity – you have to decide how much work you are willing to do to prepare for it). Again, please make sure you are preparing weeks before the start of this event, not days before. If you have any questions about the information above, or would like further guidance please feel free to contact us.

WAIVER & CONSENT FORM

By signing below, I, the parent or legal guardian of the player named below, hereby give my full consent and approval for my child to participate in the Baseball Factory Spring Training in Arizona.

I expressly acknowledge that there are certain dangers, risks, illnesses and personal injuries inherent in participating in the Baseball Factory Spring Training in Arizona and I am willing to assume these risks on behalf of my child. I understand and agree that Baseball Factory and its employees, agents, counselors, teachers, trainers, coaches, representatives, successors and assigns assume no responsibility for any and all liability, claims, losses, costs, expenses, damages loss, illness or injury (collectively, "Losses") that I or my minor child or ward, if applicable, may sustain arising out of or relating to: (i) my or his physical or mental condition, including those identified on the Medical Information and Emergency Contact Form, (collectively, "Condition") or (ii) my or his attendance at or participation in any and all activities, including, but not limited to, programs, events, the use or non-use of any equipment, or exercise at or sponsored by Baseball Factory (collectively, "Activities"), whether the result of negligence or other cause. I expressly acknowledge and agree, on behalf of myself and my minor child or ward, heirs and executors that I voluntarily and solely assume the risk from any and all Losses that result from I or my minor child or ward's, if applicable, Condition or attendance at or participation in Activities.

In consideration of Baseball Factory allowing me and/or my minor child or ward, if applicable, to attend or participate in any Activities, I do hereby, for myself and for my minor child or ward, if applicable, heirs and executors, (i) waive any and all rights and claims I have, may have or have had, and (ii) release, forever discharge and hold harmless the Baseball Factory organization, its officers, employees, coaches, sponsors, supervisors, representatives, successors and assigns from any and all Losses that I or my child or ward, if applicable, may sustain arising out of or relating to: (i) my or his Condition or (ii) my or his attendance at or participation in any and all Activities, whether the result of negligence or other cause.

I hereby certify that my child is fully capable of participating in the above event and that my child is healthy and has no physical or mental disabilities or infirmities that would restrict full participation in these Activities, except as specified on the Medical Information and Emergency Contact Form. In the case of an emergency, if I cannot be reached and my son is under the age of 18, I give Baseball Factory permission to make medical emergency decisions if necessary. If my son does not have health insurance, I agree to pay all medical costs incurred for my son while he is attending or participating in any Activity.

During the course of this event, participants may be asked to play a position that does not match their primary or secondary position (i.e. SS/OF asked to play 3B, 2B/RHP asked to play RF). This is in an effort to maximize playing time and development. Players should not feel forced to play any positions in which they do not feel safe. Objection to certain positions can be voiced at any time - upon registration, event check-in, or on the field. By signing below, I understand that it is my responsibility to notify the Baseball Factory in writing of any position concerns as soon as possible.

I acknowledge that an extraordinary event or circumstance beyond the control of Baseball Factory, such as inclement weather, facility cancellations, war, strike, riot, crime, or Act of God (such as hurricane, flooding, earthquake, volcanic eruption, etc.), may occur. Should such extraordinary event or circumstance occur while your child or ward, if applicable, is attending a Baseball Factory Activity, Baseball Factory will endeavor to ensure the continuation or relocation of the Activity. I do hereby, for myself and for my minor child or ward, if applicable, heirs and executors, waive any and all rights and claims I have, may have or have had, and release, forever discharge and hold harmless the Baseball Factory organization, its officers, employees, coaches, sponsors, supervisors, representatives, successors and assigns from any and all Losses that may be suffered by my child or ward, for changes in the event itinerary due such an unforeseeable event. No refunds or credits will be granted if portions of the event need to be modified due an event or circumstance beyond Baseball Factory's control.

I acknowledge, consent and agree that Baseball Factory may use my or my minor child or ward's, if applicable, image for promotional, trade, solicitation of patronage, educational or other similar purposes. I do hereby authorize Baseball Factory and its partners to record my minor child or ward's, if applicable, participation and appearance on video tape, audio tape, film, photography, or any other medium; use my name and/or my child's name, likeness, voice, and biographical materials in connection with these recordings; and exhibit or distribute such recordings in whole or in part without restrictions or limitation for any educational or promotional purpose. I further waive any and all rights to inspect or approve of the video tape, audio tape, film, photography, or other use of my or my minor child or ward's, if applicable, name and/or likeness, including any written article, script caption or other writing that may accompany such use.

I hereby, for myself and for my minor child or ward, if applicable, heirs and executors, waive any and all rights and claims I have, may have or have had, and release, forever discharge and hold harmless the Baseball Factory organization, its officers, employees, coaches, sponsors, supervisors, representatives, successors and assigns, from and against any and all Losses, including but not limited to, claims for libel, slander, invasion of privacy, conversion, defamation, appropriation of likeness or any other claim based on the use of my and/or my minor child or ward's, if applicable, name and/or likeness in any such materials.

I do hereby authorize Baseball Factory to use my email, my child's email and any other emails provided to Baseball Factory by my family, for promotional and educational purposes. I authorize Baseball Factory and its partners to contact those email addresses provided, until such point as I opt-out or unsubscribe. I have read the Baseball Factory privacy policy regarding communications and agree to it as written, available at <http://www.baseballfactory.com/privacypolicy.asp>.

I hereby represent and warrant to Baseball Factory that I have the authority to execute this Waiver & Consent Form on behalf of myself and my minor child or ward, if applicable, as parent, guardian, and/or next friend, if applicable. In the event of any breach by me of any representation or warranty, or in the event that I, my minor child or ward, if applicable, or any other person nevertheless asserts a claim against the Baseball Factory organization arising out of my minor child or ward's, if applicable, participation in any Baseball Factory Activity, I agree to indemnify, hold harmless and defend Baseball Factory from and against any and all Losses resulting therefrom, including but not limited to, claims of loss, damage, illness or injury to person or property whether or not such Losses result from the negligence of the Baseball Factory or from some other cause.

I understand and agree that this Waiver & Consent Form shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Maryland, without giving effect to any choice of law or conflict of law rules or provisions (whether of the State of Maryland or any other jurisdiction) that would cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of Maryland. I understand and agree that any suit, action or proceeding with respect to this Waiver & Consent Form or any other matter arising out of or relating to any Condition or Activity shall be brought in any federal or state court in the State of Maryland, I agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts for the purpose of any such suit, action, proceeding or judgment.

By signing below, I expressly acknowledge that I have read and agree to the terms and conditions set forth in the Waiver & Consent Form.

If a doctor's note is provided any monies paid, other than the commitment fee, will be transferable to a future Baseball Factory event within the same calendar year. Player fees will not be refunded.

*For all events priced $0 - $1,000 the commitment fee is $200. For all events over $1,000 in price the commitment fee is $500
