STAFF

Mike Baker: Mike is currently a Major League Scout with the Pittsburgh Pirates. He previously served as an international and full-time scout with the Orioles, Yankees, Mets, and Rangers. In addition to scouting, Mike also held coaching positions with the Orioles & Yankees, as well as the Netherlands Olympic Team.

Dave Burba: David is a former Major League Baseball pitcher who played for the Seattle Mariners, San Francisco Giants, Cincinnati Reds, Cleveland Indians, Texas Rangers, and Milwaukee Brewers from 1990 to 2004. In his 15-year major league career, Burba's record was 115–87, with 1,398 strikeouts, and a 4.49 ERA. Burba became pitching coach of the Tri-City Dust Devils for the 2011 season, the class-A team of the Colorado Rockies. Burba served as the Pitching Coach in Double-A (Hartford Yard Goats) for the Rockies, in 2016.

Jon Chastine: Jon has been with the Factory since 2013. He helps with regional tryouts, player development events, and with our Under Armour National Tournament Division. He played college baseball at Cal Baptist University in Riverside, CA. He served at Bethesda University as an infield coach for 2 years, and is currently the head coach at Vista Del Lago High School.

Dean Espy: Dean played his college baseball at South Mountain Community College and UCLA. While at SMCC, he carried a .331 batting average with 12 home runs. At UCLA he was primarily the team's 1B and designated hitter. He was drafted in the 15th round in the 2011 MLB Amateur Draft by the Kansas City Royals. He then went on to spend a couple of years in the Rockies organization. Dean has been working with Baseball Factory since 2011.

Lew Graham: Lew played college baseball at San Diego State University, where he also got the chance to play in the prestigious Cape Cod Baseball League. After college, he went on to play in the New York Mets organization. Since his playing days, Lew has served as a scout for 5 different organizations. In addition to scouting, he also coached high school baseball for several years, and coached in the San Diego Collegiate Baseball League.

Jarod Jamerson: Jarod was a previous Baseball Factory Pre-Season All American Tournament before going on to play his college ball at New Mexico Highlands College where he was a standout shortstop. He was invited to extended spring training with the Los Angeles Dodgers. He played in the Frontier and Freedom Indy Leagues.

Jack Lind: Jack is a former Big League 2nd basemen with the Milwaukee Brewers. After his playing career ended, Lind was an assistant coach at Arizona State University in 1981-1982 and a longtime minor league manager. He was a coach for the Buffalo Bisons in 1988. Lind was the Pittsburgh Pirates minor league field instructor in 1989 and minor league coordinator of instruction from 1990 to 1996. Moving to the big leagues, he was the Pirates' third base coach from 1997 to 2000 and a scout in 2001-2002. In 2006 he was manager of the Lexington Legends of the South Atlantic League.

Dan Mooney: Dan serves as a Senior Director of the Exclusive Program. Dan began his collegiate career as a catcher at Brevard Junior College. He later transferred to North Carolina State University where he was a two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference performer. After college, Dan played professionally in the Boston Red Sox organization where he reached the double-A level before being forced to retire after an injury.

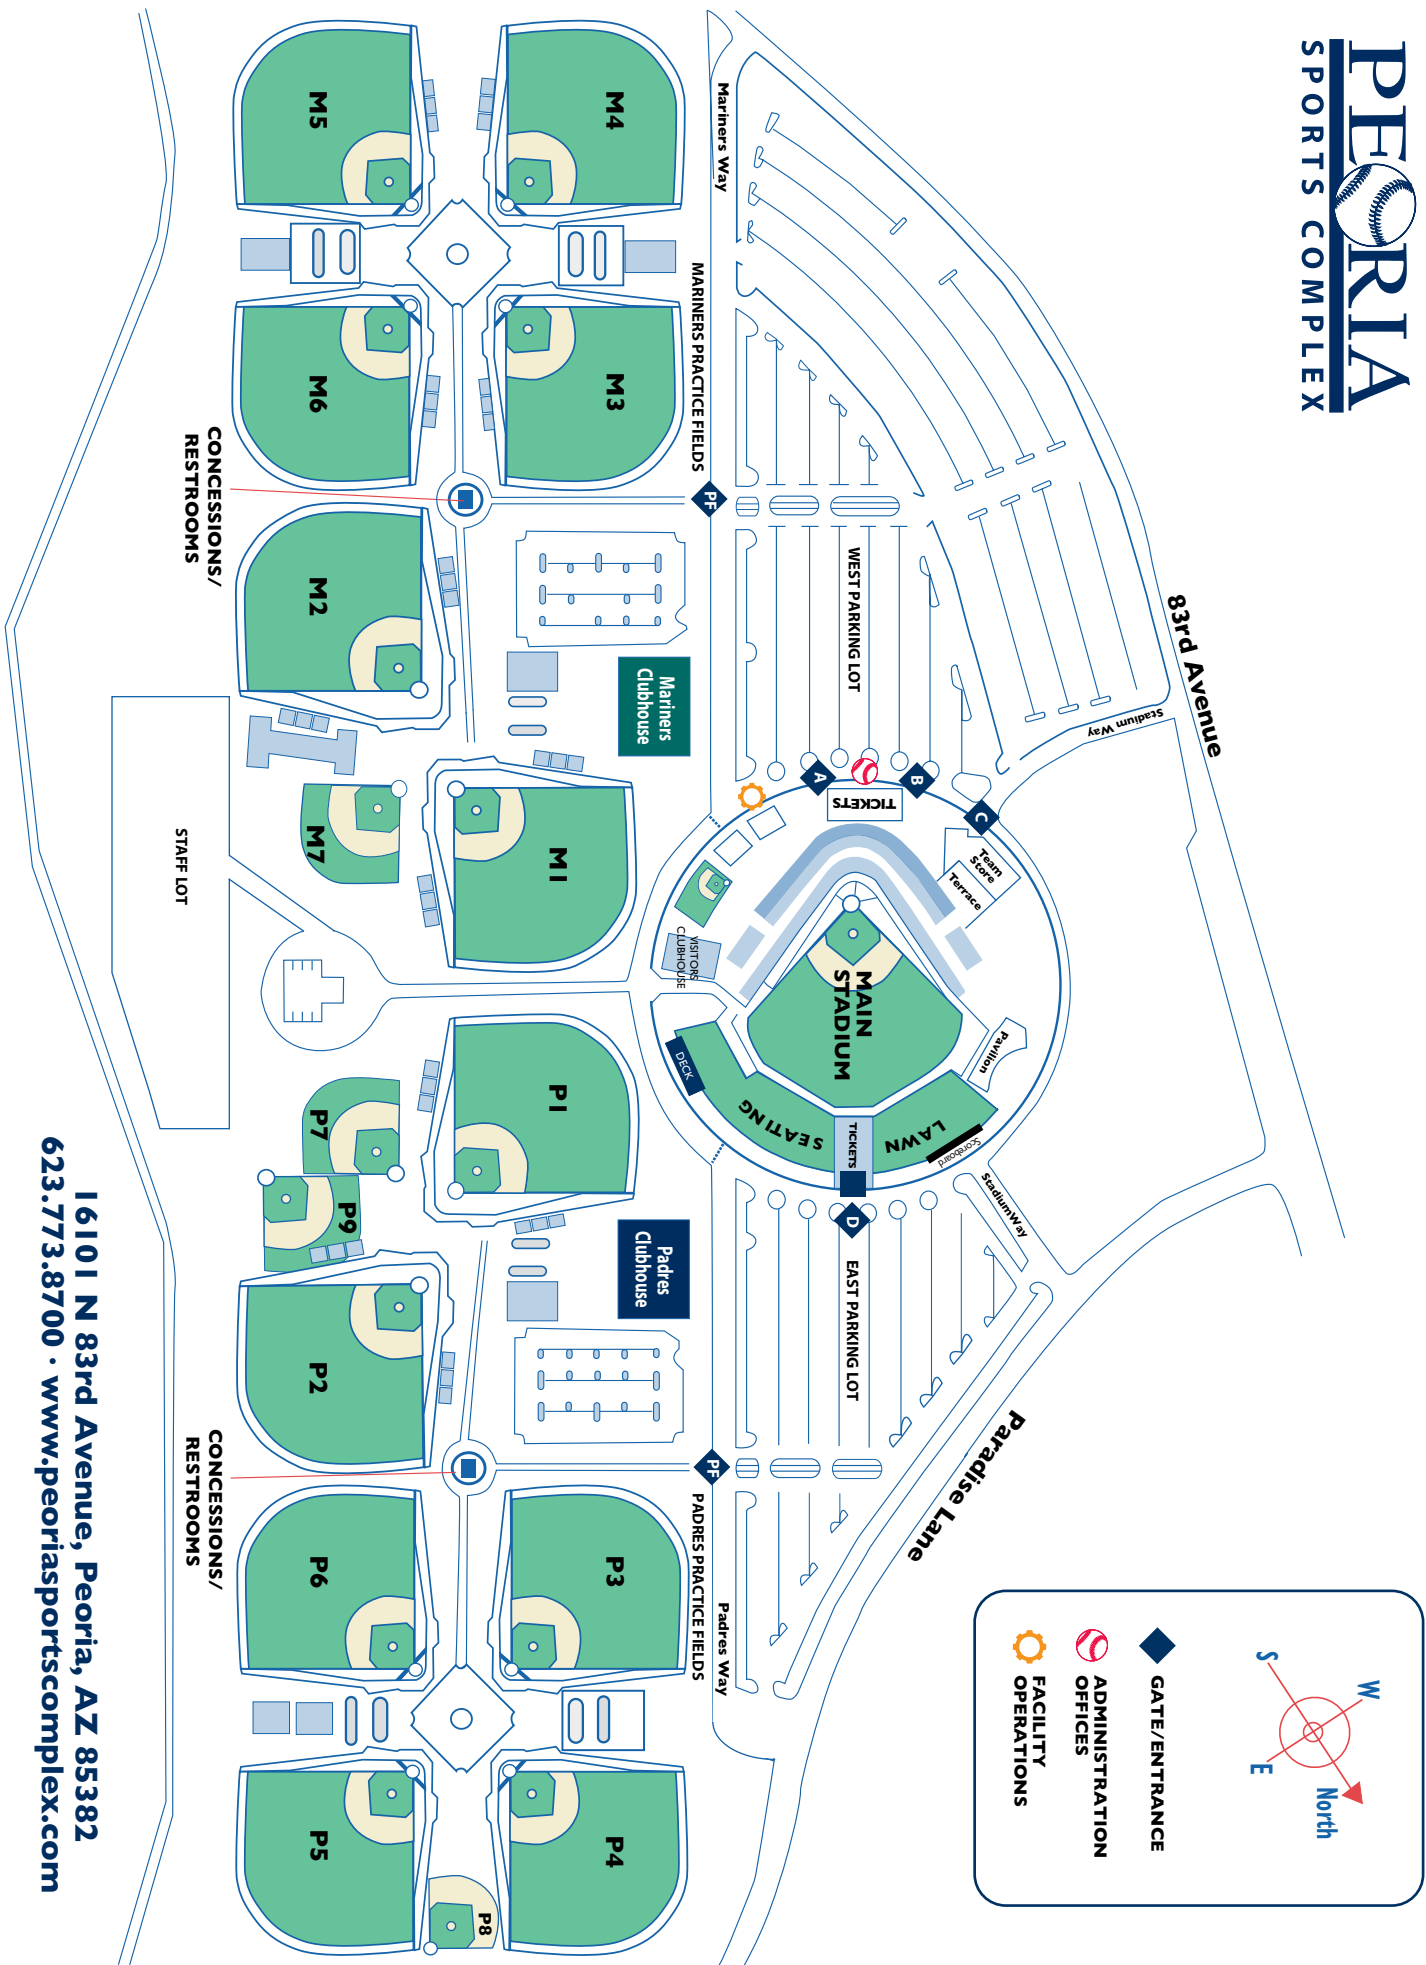

Milver Reyes: Milver has worked with the Baseball Factory for over 4 years, working several Player Development Events throughout the course of the year. In his playing days, Milver signed as an international free agent catcher with the Pirates as a 16 year old, in July 1999. Reyes spent 11 years in the minor leagues for the Pittsburgh Pirates playing at all levels (Rookie - Triple A). Reyes was part of the 2003 Williamsport Crosscutters and 2004 Hickory Crawdads Championship Teams. Reyes started his coaching career in 2009 as a player-coach for the Lynchburg Hillcats, and managed in the Pirates organization.

Rodney Spradlin: Rodney has coached and scouted with Baseball Factory for several years. He not only runs and coordinates Player Development events, but also helps to coordinate and run PREP & Tryout events in the southeast region. Rodney is a former Head Coach at William Byrd High School (Virginia) where he won a State Championship in 1997. He currently serves as the Pitching Coach at William Byrd. In addition, Rodney has been the Head Coach in the Virginia Commonwealth Games for 20 years. He is also a former Associate Scout with the Kansas City Royals. He played his college ball at Carson Newman College in Jefferson City, TN.

Ernie Young: Ernie is a former professional baseball outfielder. He played all or part of eight seasons in Major League Baseball for the Oakland Athletics (1994-97), Kansas City Royals (1998), Arizona Diamondbacks (1999), Detroit Tigers (2003), and Cleveland Indians (2004). He also played one season in Japan for the Yokohama BayStars (2002). Following his retirement after the 2007 season, Young became the hitting coach on the Chicago White Sox's rookie-level team, the Great Falls Voyagers. In 2008, he was named the manager of the Kannapolis Intimidators for the 2009 season. In 2011, Young was tabbed to manage the West Michigan Whitecaps, the class A affiliate of the Detroit Tigers, a position he retained for the 2012 season. Young currently serves on the Board of Directors of USA Baseball and managed the Team USA Professional Team for the 2011 World Cup and Pan Am Games. In 2016, Young served as an assistant coach for USA Baseballs - Stripes team.
