STAFF

Mark Daniels	Mark has been with the Baseball Factory for 23 years and serves as the National Scouting & Evaluation Crosschecker. In addition to his role with BF, he is also the Head Coach of powerhouse Virginia HS in Bristol, VA. He has coached 5 State Championship teams, and has been named State Coach of the Year 4 times. He also serves as a scout with the Atlanta Braves. Previously, he has held the role of Associate Scout for the Cleveland Indians and Arizona Diamondbacks.
Nolan Fuller	Nolan is the Senior Director of Baseball Player Development Events with Baseball Factory. He has been working full-time in the Baseball Operations department since 2012, coordinating and running events across the country. Nolan is a graduate of the University of South Carolina Beaufort, where he played and coached under the tutelage of Professional Coach, Rick Sofield. In 2012, Fuller helped the Sand Sharks make their first NAIA World Series appearance - where they finished ranked 7th in the Nation. In his four years at USCB, the Sand Sharks compiled a record of 142-75.
Javi Ochoa	Javi has returned to Chino High School as an assistant coach, in Chino, California. Early in his coaching career, Javi spent two years at Chino HS before moving on to Diamond Bar High School, and Mount San Antonio College - where he served as the catching coach in Walnut, CA. In his playing days, Javi was a participant at the Team One West Showcase in 2005. He played collegiate baseball at Azusa Pacific University. He has been working with Baseball Factory since 2010.
Ed Trujillo	Ed Trujillo is the head coach of Glendale Community College in AZ. He graduated from Trevor G. Browne high school where he played 3 years of Varsity baseball, followed by 2 years at Glendale Community College playing for Coach Dave Grant. Ed continued his education and his baseball career at Westmont College in Santa Barbara, California where he caught for 2 years, setting several college records, many of which still stand today. He began his coaching career at Santa Barbara City College while finishing his bachelor's degree at Westmont. After graduating, he returned to Phoenix and began coaching baseball at Glendale Community College in 1989.
